The Pine Ridge Christmas tree is up in the narthex. Take a tag off the tree and go shopping for an individual or family. The Red tags are for students at Red Shirt School, others for families on the reservation. Return the gift wrapped with the tag attached. There are also cloth bags made by the quilters that you can fill up as a personal care kit. Food baskets and cleaning supplies kits are also needed. Prices are going up, so if you would like to bring a few items, rather than a whole basket or kit, leave those donations in the tote marked "Pine Ridge" and we will combine it with other items. There is a list in the narthex and in Trinity Hall. We will be collecting until Sunday, December 4th. The trip to Pine Ridge Indian Reservation will be Dec 8th-11th. As always, thank you for your donation and support of this mission. Sue Erdman 507-461-5108

Parents,

Your child or children have picked a part in our program, which will be on Sunday, Dec. 18th at the 9:00 am church service.

Their choices were- Mary, Joseph, an angel, a wisemen, shepherd, stable animal or star carrier.

We will also invite the congregation, along with the children, to play a part if they desire. Everyone will be singing all the Christmas Carols in between parts.

It's called a "No Stress, No Fuss Christmas Program" with NO rehearsals.

Please have your child to the church by 8:45 am on Dec. 18th to put on their simple costume. Everyone else will get theirs when we ask them to come forward for their part in the Christmas Story.

Thank you so much for your child's participation. The congregation loves watching the children the most!

In God's Love, Alex Cooper and Val Posselh

Watch for the Military Christmas Tree in Trinity Hall. Grab a tag and give to our military gift boxes.
